"No Solicitation Request" Information

Dear Residents:

In the interest of saving a stamp, we thought we would take this opportunity to update the "No Solicitation Request" information for all Village residents. You may fill out the designated form and request that no uninvited guest may enter your property for the purpose of soliciting. You may request that certain exceptions may apply, such as Trick or Treaters or Girl/Boy Scouts, etc.

Although the Village of Tuxedo Park Code prohibits solicitation, this restriction applies to commercial activities. While most solicitors and communicators of ideas or philosophies may have varying degrees of Constitutional protections in contacting you directly at home, there is no doubt that each Village resident is the final arbiter of whether such solicitors are welcome onto your private property. The Supreme Court has recognized the fundamental principle that all solicitors' rights "stop at the outer boundary of every person's domain," provided your desire not to receive such solicitors is properly communicated, for example, through a written request to the Village or through a "No Solicitation" sign prominently displayed on your property.

To preserve the privacy rights of all Village residents, I have included a "No Solicitation Request" form (on the reverse side of this letter) for you to review, and if appropriate, sign and return to the Village Office indicating your preferences regarding uninvited solicitors and your rights to privacy. Based on these signed instructions, we will compile a listing of all residents and their addresses for the Village Police to give to all such visitors. If your instructions are not being followed, please advise the Police Department.

If you have any questions regarding this, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Lili Neuhauser
Mayor

The "No Solicitation Request" form is on the reverse side of this letter.

If submitting the form, please return to:
