

VILLAGE ELECTION

June 20, 2017

FAQ's

Am I registered to vote?

In order to run as a candidate, sign an Independent Nominating Petition, or to vote in the Village election, Village residents must be properly registered under New York State Law. Qualified Village residents must be registered with the Orange County Board of Elections. You can call the Board of Elections at (845) 291-2444 to verify your registration status.

What are the voter qualifications?

You must be a citizen of the United States. You must be eighteen years of age or older. You must be a resident of the Village of Tuxedo Park for thirty days before the date of the election. (The term resident as used in the Election Law is synonymous with domicile and is the place of one's permanent abode.)

Where do I register to vote?

You may register with the Orange County Board of Elections by June 9, 2017 in person or you may pick up the "New York State Voter Registration Form" at any Orange County Post Office, complete it, and return it to the Board of Elections in Goshen, NY. It must be received in Goshen by June 9, 2017.
